STORY HIGHLIGHTS

A Blue Baby With a Wrapped Umbilical Cord

Mom reported the next day: "Since the visit, she has not had any meltdowns."

—Dr. Barry Gillespie

"I told all the doctors that she was never right from birth. Every one told me what happened at birth does not matter now." That thinking must change.

A 3½-year-old child presents with meltdowns, processing issues, delayed learning, stomach pain, cannot say S's, a lisp, snoring, and cries many times during the day with separation anxiety.

Her birth was extremely traumatic. She was born blue with the cord wrapped tightly around her neck. Mom said that it took one minute just to get the cord unwrapped..
